

A man in a dark jacket and black pants is riding a black electric bike with large, knobby tires on a city street. He is looking off to the side. In the background, the Arch of Triumph is visible, along with other vehicles and trees. The scene is set in a city with a historic monument.

Ringo

We are proud to present you the Ringo, the street cowboy.

Ringo

- Off-Road yet Urban
- Compact but generous
- Vintage yet modern

Ringo is a stylish post-apocalyptic looking compact bike, made for the city and the road with an all terrain versatility.

This practical two-seater bike has a head-spinner look, that will let you be the eye-catcher of the road, while riding with someone on the back.

This bike combines a great look, a comfortable position, and the features of all the latest Rayvolt smart technology.
